Guild Members Sales Booth

Members Name: _____ Guild No. : _____
Phone: _____ Email: _____

Guidelines for submitting items for sale:

- Must be a Guild Member in good standing.
- Pricing Tags will be provided by the Sales Booth Committee by March and must be SECURELY ATTACHED to each of your items.
- Inventory Sheet of your sale items may be obtained on the Guild website. The Sales Committee needs a final copy of your inventory no later than March guild meeting.
- Items must be turned in with Guild No. and selling price. If you are submitting multiple items, they should be tagged Guild No. -1, Guild No. - 2, etc.
- Items for sale may only be quilting or sewing related and in good condition. The guild reserves the right to refuse items deemed inappropriate.
- Items may include fabric bundles, identified yardage, books and etc.
- 20 percent of all sales will go to the Guild treasury.
- You may need to provide shelves, racks, etc for your sale items.
- Items must be priced as even dollar amounts.
- Items may not be discounted on Sunday, so price them to sell on Saturday!
- Anyone selling items in the booth, must agree to work at least (one) two-hour shift in the booth either on Saturday or Sunday. If you are unable to do so, then you may have a friend or substitute fill in for you. You would be responsible for acquiring that person.
Sign up for the day/time that is better for you. We will schedule slots on a first come, first served basis.
- Items must be brought to Poquoson Middle School from 3:30-6 p.m. on Friday, April 6.

Saturday - April 7: Time: _____

Sunday - April 8: Time: _____
